—*The Steakhouse Among 3,595 Winners;
Full 2016 Dining Guide Revealed in Wine Spectator's August Issue*—

[GALVESTON, TEXAS] August 18, 2016 — The Steakhouse has been honored for its outstanding wine program in Wine Spectator's 2016 Restaurant Wine List Awards. The restaurant is recognized among other winners from all over the globe as a top destination for wine lovers.

“On behalf of Wine Spectator, I’m thrilled to congratulate each and every award-winning restaurant. They should be very proud,” said Marvin R. Shanken, Editor and Publisher, Wine Spectator.

“This award is a testament to the dedicated efforts of Chef Felipe Gonzales and Steakhouse General Manager Jon Paul,” said Paul Schultz, vice president of Landry’s Hospitality Division. “Our wine list contains more than 300 varieties from around the world, and we are thrilled to be recognized for the diverse selection on our menu.”

Wine Spectator began its program to recognize the world’s best wine lists in 1981. There are three levels: the Award of Excellence, the Best of Award of Excellence and the Grand Award—with 2,414; 1,093; and 88 winners this year in each respective category. Seven of the Grand Award winners are first timers.

The Steakhouse has won The Award of Excellence, which recognizes restaurants whose wine lists feature a well-chosen assortment of quality producers along with a thematic match to the menu in both price and style.

The complete list of award winners is available in print in Wine Spectator's August issue, on newsstands July 19, and online at the newly minted Restaurants.WineSpectator.com, where visitors can search and access exclusive content on the more than 3,500 restaurants. The full list is also available for free on iOS via the new Restaurant Awards app, which allows users to look for dining spots in any location with maps, choosing by wine strengths, cuisine type, pricing and more.
